ABOUT BAW BAW SHIRE

Baw Baw Shire is located in West Gippsland, approximately just over an hour from Melbourne. The shire is made up of over 100 localities spread over 3,855 square kilometres of rolling green hills, towns, mountains and top agricultural land.

Baw Baw Shire has a population of over 38,500 people which is expected to grow to almost 48,000 by June 2031. Warragul is the shire's largest town with a population of over 11,500 people. Drouin is the second largest town with a population of just under 6,800 people.

Tourism continues to be popular in Baw Baw with Mt Baw Baw, the Tarago and Thomson Rivers, Blue Rock Dam, Toorong Falls Reserve, Glen Nayook, the Ada Tree, Mount Worth, Moondarra and Tarago Reservoirs as just some of the natural attractions visited by tourists.

The Baw Baw Shire is a major centre for agricultural production, containing highly productive soils and a high rainfall climate. Agribusiness is the major employment sector in the shire (11.5%, followed by Health Care & Social Assistance (10.53%), Retail (10.31%), Construction (9.65%) and Manufacturing (9.59%).

Production within the shire includes dairy and beef cattle, pome fruits (apples), vegetables, potatoes, cool climate grapes, maize, soft fruits (berries and currants), fresh flowers, hydroponic tomatoes and timber. The shire has seen steady and strong growth in population and employment numbers over the last five years whilst maintaining a low level of unemployment.

Council's role

Council provides over 70 services to the community, working in partnership with all levels of government and local community members to provide these services.

Council Meetings

Council meetings are held on the 2nd & 4th Wednesday of every month.

Meetings are open to the public and attendance is encouraged. Questions from people present at the meeting are allowed during questions time provided at each meeting. Questions need to be received in writing prior to 12 noon on the day before the meeting. Question time forms are available for download from Council's website or at customer service centres.
